

Services related to pregnancy		Price (without tax)
Urine pregnancy test	Test pregnancy with urine	2,000
Ultrasound	Ultrasound to check pregnancy	3,000
Fee for registration (first visit for pregnancy)		5,000
Fee for examination		3,000
Blood test for early pregnancy	Blood type, infection, glucose, etc.	14,000
Pap smear for pregnant patients		3,000
Transvaginal ultrasound	Done in mid-trimester to make sure the cervix is closed	1,500
Chlamydia and gonorrhea PCR	Done in early pregnancy	4,000
Mid-trimester blood test	Glucose challenge test and anemia	5,500
First trimester screening (ultrasound only)	Calculate risk of baby's chromosome abnormality (trisomy etc.) Risk calculation based on ultrasound markers only. Also check baby's anatomy in first trimester. Available from 11wks to 13wks of gestation only.	25,000
First trimester serum marker (blood test)	Check free b hCG and PAPP-A and combine with ultrasound.	15,000
First trimester combined test (ultrasound and blood test)	Calculate risk of baby's chromosome abnormality (trisomy etc.) Risk is calculated based on ultrasound and serum markers (above).	40,000
Second trimester anomaly scan (ultrasound only)	Check baby's anatomy 18-20wks of gestation.	30,000
Genetic counseling 30-45 minutes	Counseling of prenatal testing. Necessary before prenatal testing. Price varies depending on time spent for counseling.	5,000-7,500
Results and counseling	Talk about results	3,000
Second trimester serum markers (Quatro test, blood test only)	Risk calculation based on maternal serum markers in second trimester	15,000
Other ultrasound testing	Check baby's anatomy in detail	15,000
3D, 4D ultrasound		5,000
USB recording	Ultrasound data is recorded in USB	2,000
Check whether membrane rupture is present	Swab vaginal discharge and test whether amniotic fluid is present.	1,000
Referral letter	Letter to other hospital	5,000
Letter of due date	Letter with due date and gestational age	3,000
Maternal health card (also in maternal health record book)	Submit to your employer to ease of work, reduce commute time and stay home to reduce your symptoms.	1,000